a note from pastor jack

Hey Grace family! I would love to share my morning prayer time with you. I was reminded again of an old simple truth: the greatest news in all the world is that God loves you. And He loved you first. Before you were good. Before you had anything figured out. Before you did anything right. When you were spiritually sick and poor and separated from Him. He loved you. And He demonstrated that love by sending His beloved and perfect Son Jesus to die for you, in your place. He died for you when you were His enemy, when you were not following Him and living according to His Kingdom. And as soon as you believe and receive His love, your heart swells up with love for Him! I'm so glad the Bible is filled with this Good News, and not just Good Rules. God bless!
